

Beautiful on Gods account

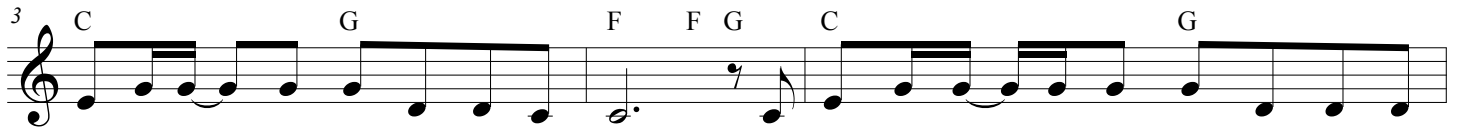

Antoine Houben

C G F F G

See the beau - ty in e - very - one not on - ly those who're fea - tured on the See the va - lue of e - very - one, not on - ly those on num - ber one, just crave for plas - tic sur - ge - ry you'll fall to self - i - do - la - try, and

3 C G F F G C G

co - ver of your fa - vourit ma - ga - zine. Look to peo - ple wit lo - ving eyes and do not let the win - ner take it all. Let no - one take your self - es - teem for in the end you'll find no mer - cy there. Nor paint your skin or pierce your flesh for re - a - lise true beau - ty lies be - yond the u - su - al pho - to - shop rou - tine.

6 F F G C G F

mock - ups that ain't what they seem, just be your - self and hold your ground, stand tall.
it will leave you in a mess that can - not be un - done or ren - dered fair.

9 Am Dm Am Dm Am Dm G

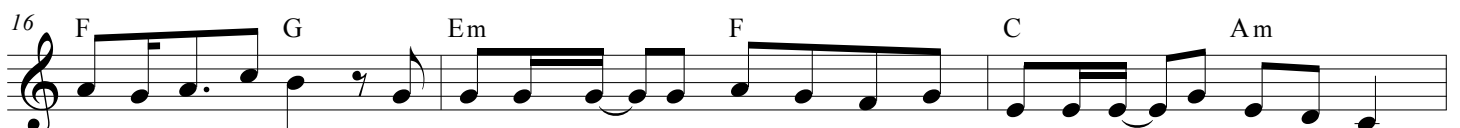

Don't let the mir - ror fool you, let no com - mer - cial rule you, look to your - self through Je - sus' eyes.

13 Em F C Am G Am

See that you and all a - round are beau - ti - ful on Gods ac - count. He loves us all, no mat - ter how we look. His love don't change when we grow old or beau - ty fades be - yond con - trol.

16 F G Em F C Am

19 G Am F G

We will re - main for - e - ver in His book.